

Fecal Calprotectin Test

Fecal calprotectin is a substance that will be excessively released into the intestine when there is inflammation. The amount of fecal calprotectin measured is proportional to the inflammation.

- painless • safe • non-invasive
- no dietary or drug restrictions

Hotline:
(852) 2637 3225

Take Care of Your Intestinal System

Goals:

- 1.To distinguish between inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) or irritable bowel syndrome.
- 2.To monitor inflammatory bowel disease.
- 3.To assess the need to proceed to endoscopy.

Price

Single Test: $1200	4 Tests in 1 Year: $4000 Package	Fecal Occult Blood Test: +$100
		Add-on offer

*If you are patient with IBD, we recommend Fecal Calprotectin Test every 3 months to monitor disease activity. The test result and report will be returned to you by mail within one week. A copy of the report will be sent to your referring doctor.